EVENT REPORT

Auxilium College (Autonomous) held a Students Orientation Program on June 19, 2024. The event, organized by the Board of Management, focused on the theme "Conscience and Conscious Efforts & Ethics, Values and Dilemmas." The orientation program aimed to instill a strong ethical foundation among students by discussing the importance of conscience, conscious efforts, and navigating ethical dilemmas. It emphasized the significance of values in personal and professional spheres.

RESOURCE PERSON 1

Mr. Emmanuel Angelo shared insights from his extensive experience in social service and leadership, highlighting practical approaches to ethical decision-making and the impact of conscious efforts on personal growth and community development.

RESOURCE PERSON 2

Pro. Dr. Beulah Emmanuel brought her expertise in social work and correctional education to the forefront, discussing real-life scenarios and the ethical challenges faced by professionals in various fields. Her session aimed to prepare students for the ethical dilemmas they might encounter in their future careers.

The orientation program was a significant step towards empowering students with the knowledge and tools necessary to uphold ethical standards and make conscientious decisions. The participation of distinguished resource persons added immense value to the discussions, ensuring that students left with a deeper understanding of the critical role of ethics and values in both their personal and professional lives.

The successful execution of the Students Orientation Program at Auxilium College was made possible by the dedicated efforts of the organizing committee. The committee was led by Dr. (Sr.) Mary Josephine Rani A., Secretary, providing overall guidance and support. The event was convened by Dr. (Sr.) Arokia Jayaceli A., the Principal of the college, who played a pivotal role in coordinating the various aspects of the program. Supporting the convener were the Co-Conveners, Dr. (Sr.) Amala Valarmathy A. and Dr. (Sr.) Sumathi M., the Vice Principals of Shift I and II, respectively.
