Constitutional Day Celebration

26th of November is been observed as the "Constitution Day", which is also known as Samvidhan Divas, to promote constitutional values among citizens. The NSS Unit of Auxilium College is proposed to collaborate with Audacious Dream Foundation in Samvidhan - The Jagrik Project. 30

NSS Volunteers are involved in this project. This project is typically based on capacity building, orientation and imparting knowledge on Indian Constitution using innovative components and participatory methods to gain practical experience and social exposure. The students involved in this project are assigned with a task of field work in their own area, over six weeks to develop a Jagrik report card (the citizens performance rating on keeping the Samvidhan alive), and as well as their observations and recommendations which they can share in the forthcoming regional and nationwide public events to be organized by the foundation. The prime focus of this programme is to give the youth the better understanding on Indian socio- political system and to make them the best citizens.
