Date : 12/08/2026
Organised by : Library, Auxilium College (Autonomous)
Academic Year : 2026 – 2027

Report :

On the occasion of the National Librarians' Day Celebration, the Auxilium College (Autonomous) Library, Vellore, organized a Book Donation Programme at the Special Prison for Women, Vellore, on 12 August 2026 at 11:30 a.m.

As part of this meaningful initiative, 210 books were donated to support and encourage reading, learning, personal development, and positive engagement among the inmates. Dr. (Sr.) Arokia Jayaceli A., Principal, Auxilium College (Autonomous), formally handed over the books to Ms. Andal, Superintendent of Police, who received them on behalf of the Special Prison for Women, Vellore.

Both Dr. (Sr.) Arokia Jayaceli A. and Ms. Andal delivered motivational speeches, highlighting the importance of books and reading in bringing knowledge, inspiration, hope, and positive transformation in individuals' lives.

The programme was attended by Dr. Amudha Arokia Mary and Dr. Diana Monish, Assistant Professors, Department of English, along with Ms. Shree Rekha N., Librarian. Their participation and support contributed to the successful conduct of the programme.

The book donation programme was a meaningful celebration of National Librarians' Day, reflecting the commitment of the Auxilium College Library to extend the benefits of reading and knowledge beyond the campus and contribute positively to society.
