REPORT :

An Anti-Ragging Awareness Program was held on 30th July 2025 at 11.00 AM in the college auditorium as part of the Student Induction activities for the new academic year. The session focused on educating the new students about the importance of maintaining a safe and respectful environment on campus. Information was shared about the rules and policies related to ragging, along with the legal consequences under UGC regulations. Students were also instructed to fill out the mandatory online Anti-Ragging Declaration Form, ensuring their awareness and compliance with anti-ragging measures. It was emphasized that Auxilium College is a ragging free campus, with no incidents of ragging ever reported. The college maintains a positive and friendly atmosphere where seniors and juniors share a healthy, respectful bond. New students expressed relief and happiness knowing they are entering a safe and welcoming environment. The program ended with a collective message encouraging all students to uphold mutual respect, kindness, and unity throughout their time at college.
