The Department of English successfully organized a presentation on the theme Gratitude on 16th December. The program started with a prayer song, which filled the atmosphere with peace and devotion. This was followed by a Bible reading that emphasized the importance of thanking God and others. A thoughtful morning gratitude message was then delivered, encouraging everyone to practice gratitude in daily life.

The audience greatly enjoyed a well-performed gratitude skit that beautifully portrayed how a small act of thankfulness can create a positive impact. The skit clearly conveyed the true meaning of gratitude, that even a simple “thank you” can make a big difference. The program ended with a melodious gratitude song. In the end, the principal appreciated the efforts of the Department of English for organizing the Month Value program and addressed the gathering, motivating everyone to practice gratitude in everyday life.
