Report :

The Auxis Carnival 2026 was officially inaugurated with a traditional ribbon-cutting ceremony, marking the joyful beginning of this noble initiative. The ceremony was graced by the esteemed Superior Dr. Sr. Mary Josephine Rani, Principal Dr. Sr. Arokia Jayaceli, Vice Principal Dr. Sr. Amala Valarmathy, Controller of Examinations Dr. Sr. Vencie Xavier, Deputy Vice Principal Dr. Abi Beaulah, Deans of Students, Student Union Leaders, and Special Guest of Honour Mr. Vaibav Murugesan. The inaugural moment set a positive tone for a day filled with fun, service, and social purpose. The dignitaries were warmly felicitated, and the Special Guest was honoured with a handmade chocolate bouquet prepared by the student community. Student Union leaders of both Shift I and Shift II felicitated the dignitaries and Deans of Students. The Women's Fashion Parade emerged as a major highlight, celebrating confidence, creativity, and the diverse beauty of womanhood. Participants from various departments showcased themes reflecting culture, strength, and modern aspirations with elegance and energy.

The carnival featured 23 student stalls and 34 stalls by external vendors, transforming the campus into a vibrant marketplace. Student stalls displayed handmade products, food, games, crafts, and social awareness initiatives, reflecting innovation and entrepreneurship. Local entrepreneurs from Vellore added variety with clothing, jewellery, home décor, books, and specialty foods. The event was energized by electrifying music from DJ Karthick and Zee TV's Harish Ragav. Vocalist Ms. Mridhula Pugazh captivated the audience with her soulful and melodious singing. The blend of DJ music and live performance created a festive and unifying atmosphere.

The AUXIS Carnival stood as a symbol of unity, creativity, leadership, and compassion. The event concluded with hope that the spirit of sharing, caring, and service will inspire future initiatives.
